FREE STATE MUNICIPAL DEBT OWED TO ESKOM

Free State MEC for Finance, Elzabe Rockman, today facilitated a meeting with Eskom and some Free State municipalities with regard to the arrear debt owed to Eskom. This process included the 3 municipalities served with termination notices.

The meeting reached in principle agreement between the parties on a comprehensive plan that will find a resolution to the matter in a sustainable manner. All parties have made certain undertakings that need to be implemented in the short and medium term.

The parties expressed their confidence that the matter of arrear debt and payment of current accounts will be resolved to the satisfaction of all concerned without interruption to service delivery.
